

Singapore International Energy Week 2018

The Singapore International Energy Week (SIEW) is the leading platform for the discussion of global energy issues that impact Asia.

Under the theme "Transforming Energy: Invest, Innovate, Integrate", SIEW 2018 will discuss how the deployment and integration of new technologies and the growth in energy demand are transforming the energy landscape. This year, the 36th ASEAN Ministers on Energy Meeting and Associated Meetings will be held together with SIEW, as part of Singapore's Chairmanship of ASEAN.

The event details are as follows:

Event: Singapore International Energy Week 2018

Date of Event: 29 October-2 November 2018

Venue: Marina Bay Sands, Singapore
